Day Trips: June-September 2013

Conowingo Dam Visitor Center & Union Hotel

Located on the Susquehanna River, the Conowingo Hydroelectric Generating Station is one of the largest non-federal hydroelectric dams in the United States. At the visitor center learn about the history of the dam, the importance of hydroelectricity as a renewable clean energy source, and the ecology and wildlife that exist in the Lower Susquehanna River Watershed. For lunch we'll step back into time for a unique dining experience at the Union Hotel restaurant in Port Deposit. The hotel was constructed during the heyday of the Susquehanna canal.
